

Travel from Ben Gurion Airport

General: It seems that there are no trains from Ben Gurion Airport to Jerusalem and the best way to travel from Ben Gurion is either by taxi or pre-booked shuttle bus (see summary of airport information below)

Information from Ben Gurion Airport website: <http://www.iaa.gov.il/Rashat/en-US/Airports/BenGurion/InformationforTravelers/TransportationToandFromtheAirport/>

Guidelines for Taxi Passengers

The Taxi companies at Ben Gurion Airport operate under supervision of the Israel Airports Authority. The Taxi Stations and dispatcher's counter at Terminal 3 are located on Level G of the Multi Level Road.

It is recommended not to use random Taxi services.

The taxi rank and the dispatcher's station at Terminal 3 are on Level G of the Multi Level Road, close to exit gate no' 03 of the Greeters Hall.

In order to be referred to a Taxicab, you must go through the dispatcher's station.

Services available for arriving passengers:

Taxis (special fare)

Passengers wishing to take a taxi will do so through the dispatcher.

Shared Taxi Service (on regular routes)

Passengers wishing to travel by shared taxicab (known in Hebrew as " sherut" ) will exit the Greeters Hall through exit gate no' 02.

The fare for a shared taxi service, in New Israeli Shekels - adjusted to 23 th August 2010.
